Recently I was able to make a trip to Lynden, Washington to share the story of Rehoboth School. These opportunities make me love the story of Rehoboth, the staff of Rehoboth and the students/families of Rehoboth even more. This trip again made me marvel at God’s creative design which continues to unfold.

This trip was shaped around the upcoming donation of 30 Navajo rugs to Rehoboth Christian School from Ron and Judy Polinder. Sixth grade teacher Tressa Weidenaar agreed to come along and share her passion for and knowledge about weaving to people in the Lynden community.

Tressa was game to do whatever- and our list of presentations continued to grow. In our few days in Lynden, Tressa ended up sharing about the history and process of weaving to over 800 people. It was absolutely amazing to see her be able to present to classes of elementary and middle school students as well as adults. I always knew that Tressa knew a lot, but I never realized how much she really knew and, to be honest, I never knew there was so much to know.

Tressa beautifully weaved her story of discovering her calling to be a Navajo follower of Christ with her audiences. She helped each student understand the fact that God is in the process of making all things new and beautiful as He creates an amazing tapestry out of dirty wool. I knew that the students had paid attention when I met parents and grandparents who conveyed that the students had come home gushing about what they had heard.

Tressa was not afraid to share the pain of the past, but she also did not hold back on the changes at Rehoboth she has witnessed and experienced. For this, I give thanks to God who makes all things new! Trusting His Story! Amazed! And convinced that there is more work to do! Be on the lookout for Navajo rugs displayed throughout the school in the next months. And a big thanks to the donation of this collection from the Polinders!

Amazed!

Quarter 3 Ends Tomorrow
Friday, March 1 is the end of the third quarter of the school year. Time is flying! We will issue report cards on Monday, March 4 so that families will have time to look them over before Parent-Teacher Conferences.

For Athletic Eligibility purposes, students who were ineligible for 3rd quarter because of failing grades at the end of first semester can earn their way back into eligibility with passing grades at the end of the quarter. Rehoboth’s weekly eligibility standards apply to students on our sports teams, those going on Band Tour, and students in the Spring Musical.

Parent-Teacher Conferences
Spring Parent-Teacher conferences take place on Thursday, March 7 from 4pm-8pm in the LC of the High School and on Friday, March 8 from 9am - 1pm in the LC as well. There’s no school on Friday, so families have a chance to stop in for a conference before heading out for Spring Break. No reservations are required for high school conferences. Instead, families can just stop in and meet with teachers at their tables in an open house format.
The 8th grade class will have hot dogs and concessions available on Thursday night at the mid-school as a fundraiser for their class trip.

Spring Break
Spring Break begins Friday, March 8 for all Rehoboth students. We will resume classes on Monday, March 18. Basketball state playoffs will take place over the break, so stay tuned to Rehoboth email and social media for game dates and times.

Tickets for the RCHS Musical
We will be selling tickets to the musical during the week leading up to Spring Break and the week after Spring Break. More information will be coming about prices, showtimes, etc. Stay tuned, and don’t miss this awesome event!
