Table Talk

Bob Ippel, Executive Director

Dear Parents,

This past weekend I went to a fundraiser for the St. Joseph Mission School in San Fidel, NM, a school that serves children from the Acoma and Laguna Pueblos. I also met with Sister Thomas Aquinas who is the new principal at the Sacred Heart School in Gallup. I ran into Tim Becksvoort who is the principal of our sister school, the Zuni Mission School. When talking to the heads of these schools, I could not help but notice that Rehoboth and these other schools have a lot in common. Our schools have a strong sense of community and teachers who have a strong calling to their profession. Our teachers and students have a love and respect for each other. Our schools have a commitment to Christian values and to the work of Jesus Christ. Our parents make a financial sacrifice to have their children attend our schools. Our schools all depend on outside support to keep our schools open. The families of our schools would all benefit from government programs that would make school choice an easier option for them.

I praise God for these sister schools and for their work! I am amazed at how God is at work through hundreds of faith based schools throughout New Mexico. I am thankful that we are able to encourage each other in our ministries.

Always amazed!

Bob Ippel

Rehoboth Christian School Executive Director

THINQ with Us on September 21

The graphic features the THINQ Summit logo at the top left, with the tagline "STAY CURIOUS - THINK WELL - SPARK GOOD". Below the logo are four small video thumbnails of speakers: Tori Hope Petersen, Brooke Keels, Nicole Baker Fulgham, and Dr. Matthew Sleeth. To the right of the thumbnails is a large date graphic for Thursday, September 21, with the time 6:30 pm-8:00 pm and location Rehoboth High Life Center, Rehoboth, New Mexico. At the bottom left, under "SUMMIT TOPICS:", are four bullet points: Fostering Resilience, Stopping the Suicide Trend, Raising a Generation of Girls, and Observing the Sabbath. A small text block at the bottom left states: "THINQ SUMMIT IS A ONE-EVENING EVENT DESIGNED TO EQUIP BELIEVERS ON HOW TO THINK WELL ABOUT CULTURAL CONVERSATIONS PERMEATING TODAY'S MODERN WORLD."

TONIGHT, we will be hosting a special parent night at Rehoboth as part of a global event called the THINQ Summit. THINQ brings people together to think about, learn, and discuss challenging topics through a Christian lens; and we believe that the format can bring a lot of value to our Rehoboth community. There will be four short (8-10 minutes each) talks with time to consider, discuss, and digest them in between:

- "Fostering Resilience" - Tori Hope Petersen
- "Raising a New Generation of Girls" - Nicole Baker Fulgham
- "Observing the Sabbath" - Dr. Matthew Sleeth
- "Stopping the Suicide Trend" - Brooke Keels

Rehoboth Parents will earn volunteer hours by attending, but the event is open to the whole community. We hope that you will be able to join us at 6:30pm in the LC of the high school.

Elementary and Middle school Drop-off/pickup

If you are dropping off or picking up elementary and middle school students, please use the parent loop past the church and behind our building. Only vehicles with placards will be allowed to use the lot for drop-off and pick-up.

Also, please use the parent loop for picking up students after school, not the high school/church parking lot. Our elementary and middle school staff supervision is up by the parent loop.

Thank you for helping keep our students safe and promote good traffic flow.

Toolbox Thursday

Hopefully, you and your family members have been reminding each other to take deep breaths (Breathing Tool) during difficult times this week. The Garbage Can Tool is another super helpful tool. This week we will practice deciding if a problem is little or big. A little problem can be trashed (forgotten) a big problem needs to be talked about so we have plans in place for the future. Look for more Garbage Can ideas in your child's folder/ binder on Thursday.

High School Highlights

Who Are You? What's Your Identity?

For chapel this week, SALT teacher, Nick Salazar, shared a powerful message with our students. There are lots of things that we identify ourselves with in life: our talents, our relationships, our academics, our culture, and so forth. Those qualities are all wonderful, but they can't serve as our ultimate identity, because in some way, they will fade over time, get broken, or fail us. Likewise, we can tend to define ourselves using negative factors like our hurts, our trauma, our addictions, our past mistakes and sins, etc. Satan wants us to short change the true identity we have by labeling ourselves as unloveable or not good enough. In the end, there's only one identity that will not fail—only one that will stay with us through all the ups and downs of life, and that's our identity in Christ. God created us in His image and provides us with a plan and a purpose for our lives; and He loves us enough to save us by grace—a gift that will never go bad. Take some time this week to talk with your children about the healthy things they use to identify themselves and reinforce to them that their ultimate worth comes from who they are in Christ, not what they accomplish. Likewise, find out if there are harmful conditions that your children see as permanent identifiers for themselves. Reinforce that they are not bound by pain or mistakes thanks to what the Lord has done for them.

First Quarter Coming to a Close

Believe it or not, there are just two weeks left in the first quarter of the school year! At Rehoboth, student's quarter grades serve as a progress report of how they are doing, and it's the semester grades that are stored on student transcripts as part of their permanent record. Nevertheless, the quarter is a good time to take stock of how things are going and what habits are proving successful vs. what habits need to change. Parents will have the opportunity to speak with their child's teachers on our two Parent-Teacher conference nights: Tuesday, October 10 and Wednesday, October 11. Both days, conferences will run from 4-8pm in the LC. No need to reserve a specific time slot.

Senior Night on Monday

The parents of our 9th-11th graders have each had an opportunity to learn about classes and credits, tests and service opportunities, and advice that will help students make the most of their high school years. That means that our Senior Parent Night is the only one left! Please plan to attend with your child on Monday, September 25 to have all your questions answered about graduation, college & scholarship applications, Senior Trip, and much more. The event starts at 6pm in the LC of the high school.

PSAT/SAT Testing Day

On Wednesday, October 11, all the RCHS students will take standardized tests in the morning. Freshmen and sophomores will take the PSAT 8/9. Juniors will take the PSAT/NMSQT; and seniors will take the SAT. For juniors and seniors, serious scholarship dollars and college admissions are tied to the results of these tests. For freshmen and sophomores, they serve as good practice for the higher stakes exams of their upperclassman years.

News from the kitchen. This week was a busy week. The kitchen staff have been doing a fantastic job. We serve about 410 students daily that includes breakfast and lunch. Kudos to the kitchen staff that prepares and the volunteers that help serve meals with love for the students. We are still working on building efficiency with our schedules and routines as it has recently changed to accommodate more instruction time for our elementary students. Thank you for the flexibility and may the Lord continue to shine his goodness upon us, blessings from the kitchen. Thank you for the daily encouragement from different staff that come in with smiling faces. If you have any questions, concerns, or any ideas, please don't hesitate to contact me at danderson@rcsnm.org

Now down to business.

We need servers now, more than ever, please contact Deanna Benson at dbenson@rcsnm.org, if you can do your volunteer hours by serving lunch. It is the BEST job on campus, kids LOVE to be fed! We have some great graphics going up this week to help them remember. They are doing very well! Supervising this process is another volunteer opportunity that is fun and quite an eye opener!

We are encouraging kids to drink their milk, and eat the food on their plates. Please encourage your kids to eat what is on their plate, remembering they can speak up & turn down a food item, as long as they have 3 items on their tray, one being a fruit or vegetable!

ALL kids eat FREE! Take advantage! 😊
